Colorado State Convention 2020

Dear State Convention Delegates:

These are unusual times. I hope you and your loved ones are healthy and safe. Thank you for your patience and flexibility, as we have all had to adapt to a rapidly changing COVID-19 pandemic and a very dynamic and rapidly changing Presidential field.

If we are going to turn a page on horrid and harmful policies and lack of leadership, it will take all of us this November. That is why I am very pleased that there are negotiations at the highest levels between Joe Biden, Bernie Sanders, and the DNC to talk about how we bring about needed changes and help unify our party.

The current rules would provide that 100% of the state convention seats would go to Biden supporters. Biden has earned those under the rules. However, I agree with both Biden and Sanders that would be short-sighted and make it very difficult to build a unified coalition within our own party.

The Presidential Campaigns both seem 100% certain that they will work out a negotiated agreement soon that will allow more voices and perspectives to the table. That agreement will very likely become the amended DNC and DSP rules. What does this mean for you?

Colorado's Convention is earlier than most states so we may have to ballot before we know the specifics of their agreement.

We are going to use this ballot to help identify whom you would like to send to the Convention, while the campaigns negotiate over how many delegates get to go to the convention.

You have a choice in this ballot between voting on Biden Delegates, Sanders Delegates or Abstain. We will use rank choice voting to ask you to rank your preferred delegates up to the maximum spots allowed, so we will have 100% of the data we need from you (the delegate voter) to enfranchise every possible delegate Colorado will get to send when we know the final agreement.

It does mean that final delegate results will not be able to be announced until we know how many delegates we get to send from each preference group. We will announce as soon as possibly can. We do know the results will still be gender-balanced, as required in the Delegate Selection Plan.

Grateful to all of you,

Morgan Carroll
