

Regional Field Director

The Colorado Democratic Party Coordinated Campaign is seeking experienced Regional Field Directors (RFDs) to lead a diverse and robust organizing team in Colorado in 2020. We are looking for passionate, hardworking individuals who are committed to building the grassroots turnout operation needed to win elections up and down the ballot for Democrats in November 2020. RFDs will be responsible for coaching and managing a team of organizers and volunteers to hit data-driven organizing metrics. RFDs should be skilled managers, positive, solutions-oriented and capable of motivating a diverse team of organizers and volunteers.

Responsibilities

- Implement the field plan and GOTV plan within your region
- Manage, train, and hold accountable a team of Organizers on a daily basis
- Oversee timely and accurate reporting and data management by field organizers.
- Build and maintain political relationships with local leaders in your region
- Keep your team focused and motivated in a high-stress, rigorous work schedule and environment
- Consistently meet stated deadlines and communicate with state leadership when challenges arise that will prevent you and/or your team from meeting your goals

Qualifications

- Two cycles of organizing or field experience
- Experience recruiting, training, and managing volunteers or staff
- Strong interpersonal skills and ability to effectively and clearly communicate with different types of stakeholders, from high level elected officials to grassroots activists
- Experience meeting deadlines, and the ability to manage many tasks simultaneously
- Strong communication skills and ability to communicate priorities, needs and expectations to organizers and managers
- Willingness to work long hours, including nights and weekends
- Must have access to a cell phone and vehicle.
- Proficiency with Votebuilder/VAN
- Women and people of color are strongly encouraged to apply.

Competitive salary and health benefits are provided. This position is full time through the General Election.
